Adjudicator

Kelly Hopkins

AISTD, Dip/DDE, RAD, CBTS/DDE, RAD, CBTS

Kelly began her training with Susan Amos, later attending The Royal Ballet School and Elmhurst Ballet School. Kelly completed her professional training at Laine Theatre Arts and went on to gain her teaching qualifications with the RAD and ISTD.

After a period of professional stage work and freelance teaching Kelly became principle of North Hampshire Academy of Dance, which in the last 14 years has seen great success from its students, many of whom have progressed onto professional dance and musical theatre colleges. As well as running her own school, Kelly has also taught at several professional schools in particular Sylvia Young Theatre School where she taught the elite ballet program for 5 years, working with a great many students working in professional theatre and television. Kelly has been a BIFF adjudicator since 2015 and became an All England Dance adjudicator in 2019.

SAFETY OF PERFORMERS

It is necessary for teachers and parents to be aware of their responsibilities in entering any performers with limited physical capabilities or special needs, bearing in mind the limitations imposed by the surrounding environment. It is also necessary for the teacher or parent to pass on to the Adjudicator, via the Organiser, any such information that would impact on the Adjudicator's work.

Safeguarding and Risk Assessment

Safeguarding

If a parent or guardian submits a video performance they are giving us permission to allow this solo to be viewed by the Adjudicator and relevant festival committee members.

Risk Assessment

This is the responsibility of the host of the location at which the recorded performances takes place. If this is at home, then this may be the parent. If it takes place in a teaching studio, then this is likely to be the teacher. All hosts should ensure the space used is appropriate for the performance and is free from any Health and Safety risks such as slips or trip hazards.

The festival will not be responsible or liable for any injury that may occur because of a video performance being made.
